

Long Dong

Overview

Long Dong is without a doubt the premier climbing area of Taiwan. It offers world class climbing on bullet hard sandstone, against an atmospheric coastal backdrop. There are a huge number of bolted sport routes and trad routes across a wide range of grades, as well as a handful of deep water solo and bouldering routes. Long Dong is divided up into six main crags.

How to get there

Long Dong is about one hour away from Taipei by car.
